

Do not override Wisconsin's do not call list. These telemarketers are out to interfere with my right to privacy with their constant harassment of my family and myself. What they are is telephone terrorists, and the government of the United States is supposed to be protecting its citizens from terrorists, both foreign and domestic. If anything, the national do not call list should model after Wisconsin's.